

Wisconsin Cervid Farmers' Foundation (W.C.F.F.), which is the educational arm of Whitetails of Wisconsin (W.O.W.), announced a $750 scholarship was awarded to Johna Radke at the W.O.W. Annual Spring Meeting held at The Chula Vista Resort in Wisconsin Dells, Wisconsin March 18, 2023. According to W.C.F.F., Johna is one of four winners selected this year. At the time of applying for this scholarship, Johna was a student with a college career field in veterinary.

Johna originally attended Muskego High School and has now graduated from UW-Madison School of Veterinary Medicine as of May 14, 2023. One veterinarian in North Prairie, WI where Johna did an externship was impressed with how compassionate, respectful, intelligent and insightful she was. A co-worker at Prairie Animal Hospital where Johna did two externships said Johna showed an ability to think through difficult problems, help others and show compassion for our patients.

W.O.W. is an association representing an industry that has an annual economic impact on Wisconsin's economy of $75 million. W.O.W. is a political voice for approximately 400 deer breeders in Wisconsin. They represent the deer industry by working closely with state and federal legislators and regulatory agencies to develop rules and regulations that govern the deer industry.

W.C.F.F. dedicates the promotion of deer farming and ranching as an agricultural pursuit. The Foundation serves its members through educational programs, research and publications providing industry leadership while maintaining quality industry standards.
